Pro-Life/Abortion

Greg Davis talked with attorneys who are representing Hobby Lobby against the Obama Administration and got an update on the status of their lawsuit against the Obamacare mandate that businesses must provide birth control for their employees. They argue for-profit businesses - not just religious groups - should be allowed to seek an exception if the law violates their religious beliefs. The owners approve of most forms of artificial birth control, but not those that prevent implantation of a fertilized egg – such as an IUD or the morning-after pill.
